HEYTUTOR

Academic Tutor

Hybrid
March 2022 – May 2022

- Tutored private schools students who were academically behind, with a group average of 68.4% and brought their grade up to a group average of 81.2%. These students were also at risk of failing their state standardized test, however, by the end of our sessions they all had met the standard level with some receiving mastery level.
- Tutored AP level physics and calculus students in preparation for their AP exams. Of the 8 students I tutored: 2 students scored a 5 and 3 students scored a 4.

SSMHEALTH

Information Technology Intern

Oklahoma City, OK
May 2023 – Present

- Troubleshooted hospital support tickets efficiently, resulting in an 16% average decrease in the time taken to clear a day's list of tickets.
- Used knowledge of hardware repair to replace working displays, hard drives, batteries, etc. from no longer functioning devices and inputted them in non-functioning devices who could be revived with various parts. In doing this I cut down the number of laptops, desktops. being discarded down from 27 total to 12.

PROJECTS

---

BOTTO1 - DISCORD SERVER BOT

May 2023-Present

- Using the Discord.js module from the Node.js library, I created a responsive chat bot that can also complete various commands, assign server roles, and alert when members break the server rules..

MMOKUTUMOH.COM

July 2023

- Developed a responsive resume in a webpage format using HTML, CSS, and Javascript. It features a contact page where users can submit a form to reach out that updates an excel sheet with the inputted information.
